Working Ranch Horse Cattle Sorting Score Sheet

Judged by: _____

Date: _____

Credits: good horsemanship; riding one handed; calm and quiet herd entry and movement; good stockmanship; rider allows horse to rate cattle and demonstrate 'cow sense'; accurate smooth and efficient sorting; ability to stop or pause while working cattle; more credit for more head sorted successfully; appropriate communication and use of herd holders.

Penalties: rough handling of horse or cattle; poor stockmanship; kicking, striking, biting, rearing or bucking of the horse; horse opening it's mouth excessively; poor horsemanship and rough cues; excessive speed when uncalled for; horse unwilling to approach cattle or slow to catch up as necessary; scattering the herd; cattle escaping control of contestant.

Each exhibitor starts with a score of 70 points.

Exhibitor #	Credit	Comments	Penalties	Comments	Score